Celebrity Autographed Items Up For Bid: Auction To Benefit Greek Housing

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill. – Once in a lifetime items will be up for bid at Phi Kappa Psi's annual Friends Family and Alumni auction on Saturday, March 5 at the American Legion located in Edwardsville.

The evening will begin with cocktails at 6:00p.m. followed by a catered dinner by Ravanelli's at 7:30 p.m. The silent auction will start at 6:00 p.m. and end at 8:30 p.m. All of the auction items, including an autographed guitar by Dave Matthews, will go towards funding for greek housing in the fall.

Some of the items include a signed baseball by Albert Pujols, tickets to a Cardinals vs. Astros game at Busch Stadium and a bottle of tequila autographed by Stan "the man" Musial, just to name a few.

The proceeds from the auction and dinner will go toward the new Greek Village: Living and Learning Community. Southern Illinois University Edwardsville has been making strides in improving its campus. One of the newest additions to the campus will be the Greek housing.

AUCTION-2

After being in the works for well over a year, the plans have been drawn, and the construction will commence once the spring semester is finished on Monday, May 9. Besides Phi Kappa Psi, Alpha Kappa Lambda and Sigma Phi Epsilon will also be receiving houses next fall.

There are plenty of drink specials on beer and liquor, as well as a live disc jockey. “This is a new and exciting time not only for Phi Psi, but also for SIUE,” said President of Phi Kappa Psi, Danny Aschenbrenner. Come out and support the fraternity and SIUE by eating, drinking and bidding on the numerous auction items that will be present. Tickets for the event are $10 and can be purchased online at www.siue.edu/phipsi, or by phone at 217-324-4822.
