VIII. OLD BUSINESS:

A. Textbook Service Policy Review

President Jansen explains the standard changes to the policy. Most were language and verbiage changes. No vote is necessary, only looking for feedback to the policy. Senator Sims concurs with the language being made more simple. Senator Do speaks on behalf of some students and asks whether for certain colleges that the students have an opt-out option so that they can purchase a cheaper book and then keep their books. Kelly Jo Karnes explains that the textbook rental fee is cheap in comparison, however, she will pose this question to the Textbook Services Committee. President Jansen will submit feedback.

IX. NEW BUSINESS:

A. Constitution Reviews:

1. Wish U
2. SIUE Cycling Club
3. Women in Computer Science and Computer Engineering

Senator Tiffany explains that three (3) student organizations presented at the SOAB meeting. There were no constitutional issues. The SIUE Cycling Club is already working with Campus Recreation. There were some questions regarding the Women in Computer Science and Computer Engineering and how they would be different from SWE. Women in Computer Science and Computer Engineering responded satisfactorily and they are willing to work with any organization that is in engineering and computer science. Wish U is a unique philanthropist student organization began by a SIUE alumni and connects with other university alumni. Wish U is comparable to Make-A-Wish, but for ages 18 and over. Wish U will do small fundraisers and eventually can be incorporated with SIUE's major fundraisers.

Senator Sims moved to open discussion on the three organizations. Senator Montgomery seconded. Senator Sims commended the presentation for Women in Computer Science and Computer Engineering on its inclusivity of women and men, in addition to the support and backing of the engineering faculty that this organization will receive. Senator Montgomery also commended the Women in Computer Science and Computer Engineering for being an academic organization looking to empower women in the fields of computer science and engineering. Senator McCune moved to close the discussion. Senator Butler seconded.

Senator McCune moved to approve the constitutions for Wish U, SIUE Cycling Club, and Women in Computer Science and Computer Engineering. Senator Krichevsky seconded. The motion was approved by acclamation.
