MORRISONVILLE ADULT EASTER EGG HUNT

Morrisonville Knights of Columbus

MORRISONVILLE, Ill.- Who says Easter egg hunting is just for kids? Not the Morrisonville Knights of Columbus who is sponsoring its third annual adult Easter egg hunt at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 23.

A traditional egg hunt with a fun, adult twist, this annual event is held at the Knights of Columbus Hall, located at 607 Fuller Street, Morrisonville, Ill. The egg hunt itself takes place at the Morrisonville Community Park a block down from the hall with prizes to follow at the KC hall. Many of the fundraisers support community organizations and also helps to maintain the hall so events like this are possible.

“As president of the community library, I truly appreciate the dedication and hard work the Knights of Columbus put into its fundraisers,” said Beth Fuchs. “Not only are their events fun for the entire community, but they also provide much needed resources to our community.”

Over the years, the Knights of Columbus have contributed to organizations such as the community library and the senior citizens center.

While some may just take candy home, a few lucky egg hunters will find the coveted eggs and walk away with prizes. In the past, prizes have included a flat-screen TV or a trip for two to Las Vegas. Prizes will be determined by the number of ticket purchases made prior to March 20.

Admission is $10 per person at the door, and you must be 21 to enter. Tickets are also available in advance from any KC member. Complimentary appetizers and a cash bar will be available.

Adults are reminded to bring a flashlight and a basket to carry eggs in; the hunt begins at dark and continues until the last egg is found.
