

The Casino Queen is opening their RV Park for the upcoming summer season for Memorial Day on May 28, 2011. A hidden gem in the St. Louis-metro area, this park has features that will greatly appeal to the seasoned RV traveler and those who not as experienced. With its full service hook-ups and pull-through sites, it is clean why this park is an unparalleled destination.

According to a study done by PFK Consulting, RV vacations are on average 26 to 74 percent less expensive than other types of vacations, in spite of the rising gas prices. The proximity to downtown St. Louis and many other attractions make this site an exciting destination for the RV traveler.

The park also features a bath house and laundry facilities, along with a convenience store and access to the Casino Queen indoor pool and exercise room. The Casino Queen offers three level options for an overnight stay.

The park is in very close proximity to such attractions as the Gateway Arch, Busch Stadium, the Edward Jones Dome, St. Louis Union Station, Laclede's Landing, the St. Louis Zoo, St. Louis Science Center and the Scottrade Center. To get you to those amazing St. Louis destinations, there is a 24-hour shuttle offered to and from the Casino Queen and the MetroLink station.
