Tweets for June 16-30

June 16
Ever tried walking or riding your bike to work? It's a great way to reduce emissions and get some #exercise!

June 17
Still not sure to what to get Dad for #FathersDay? Check out these eco-friendly gift ideas. http://bit.ly/itroUQ

June 18
Join @LacledeGas on June 22 for a #FREE Energy Action Workshop on Natural Gas Vehicles. Call 314-342-0723 to reserve your spot.

June 19
If you're planning a #FathersDay barbecue, check out some tips to make your celebration greener. http://aol.it/bzzahO

June 20
Treat your kids to some green #FamilyFun this Friday at the Shaw Nature Reserve. For details, visit www.shawnature.org.

June 21
The first day of #summer is here! If you're planning a vacation, consider staying in a green hotel. http://bit.ly/amynb

June 22
Join @habitatstl tonight to learn how to make your own rain barrel! Find out more here: http://bit.ly/g8zQYz.

June 23
#AirConditioners account for 16% of residential energy use. Check out some tips to increase your A/C's efficiency. http://bit.ly/jMQq4x

June 24
Did you know taking unneeded items out of your trunk can save you #money on #gas and help improve #airquality?

June 25
The Cards play the Blue Jays at home tonight. How often do you take #MetroLink to the #STLCardinals games?

-more-

June 26
Replacing your blinds with energy-saving window coverings is a great way to reduce energy and emissions.

June 27
Want to learn how you can make your home more #EnergyEfficient? Attend tomorrow's 'Cashing in on Home Comfort' class. http://bit.ly/mMVZXF

June 28
St. Louisans make 7.2 million vehicle trips a day. Do your part to drive less by exploring #telecommuting options at your workplace.

June 29
The Education for Sustainability: Midwest Summer Institute starts today at #WebsterUniversity. For information, visit http://bit.ly/jwhBky.

June 30
Planning any holiday #barbeques? Make sure to use a charcoal chimney or electric starter instead of lighter fluid to help reduce emissions!