SIUE Hosts "Making a Career Transition" Workshop

(EDWARDSVILLE, ILL.) – Do you feel the pressure of finding a new job? Have you thought about what steps to take next? The Alumni Association will be hosting a “Making a Career Transition” Workshop on Nov. 16, 2010 to help individuals take the right steps to switch into their new career.

In conjunction with the Office of Educational Outreach and the Career Development Center, the Alumni Association has assembled a panel of speakers to discuss the challenges and opportunities available when making a career transition.

The panel will share their perspective and information on the following topics: researching different career options and choosing your new direction; assessing your skills; preparing your resume; the job search process and interviewing tips.

The panel members include:

- Josh Kaffenberger - Career Counselor, SIUE Career Development Center
- Laci Warden, '07 - SIUE Career Development Center
- Andrew Lenhardt, '04, '06 - Assistant Director, SIUE Human Resources

The workshop will begin at 6:00p.m.following with a question and answer session at 7:30p.m. A networking reception will wrap up the evening.

The event will be located in Birger Hall on the SIUE campus. The cost of the event is $10 for Alumni Association members, $15 for non-members and free for current students. Registration price includes an invitation to the networking reception following the workshop and free parking in the Birger Hall parking lot.

Advanced registration is required to attend. For more information, call the Alumni Affairs office, (618) 650-2762 or visit www.siu.edu/alumni.
